Request for Digital Copy

Terms and Conditions

Digital copies can be made available to students of a designated University of Greenwich course only by the following means:

- Through a virtual learning environment and accessible only to registered students of the named course.
- The requested item will be emailed to your University of Greenwich/Partner institution email address when copied.

Copyright Notice

Staff and students of the University of Greenwich are reminded that copyright subsists in this extract and the work from which it was taken. This Digital Copy has been made under the terms of a Copyright Licensing Agency (CLA) Licence which allows you to:

- access and download a copy;
- print out a copy.

This Digital Copy and any digital or printed copy supplied to or made by you under the terms of this Licence are for use in connection with the named Course of Study. You may retain such copies after the end of the course, but strictly for your own personal use.

All copies (including electronic copies) shall include this Copyright Notice and shall be destroyed and/or deleted if and when required by the University.

Except as provided for by copyright law, no further copying, storage or distribution (including by email) is permitted without the consent of the copyright holder.

The author (which term includes artists and other visual creators) has moral rights in the work and neither staff nor students may cause, or permit, the distortion, mutilation or other modification of the work, or any other derogatory treatment of it, which would be prejudicial to the honour or reputation of the author.
